Entrée : J. S. Bach, Auprès de toi

Témoignages d'Albert Beaudry et de Christine Jamieson

Kyrie : L. Deiss, Jésus, Verbe de Dieu

1ère lecture : 1 Rois, 17, 10-16

10 So he went to Zarephath. When he came to the town gate, a widow was there gathering sticks. He called to her and asked, "Would you bring me a little water in a jar so I may have a drink?" 11 As she was going to get it, he called, "And bring me, please, a piece of bread."

12 "As surely as the Lord your God lives," she replied, "I don't have any bread—only a handful of flour in a jar and a little olive oil in a jug. I am gathering a few sticks to take home and make a meal for myself and my son, that we may eat it—and die."

13 Elijah said to her, "Don't be afraid. Go home and do as you have said. But first make a small loaf of bread for me from what you have and bring it to me, and then make something for yourself and your son. 14 For this is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says: 'The jar of flour will not be used up and the jug of oil will not run dry until the day the Lord sends rain on the land.'"

15 She went away and did as Elijah had told her. So there was food every day for Elijah and for the woman and her family. 16 For the jar of flour was not used up and the jug of oil did not run dry, in keeping with the word of the Lord spoken by Elijah.

Méditation : D.-L. Schutte, Here I Am, Lord

Acclamation à l'Évangile : H. Schütz, Alleluia !

Lecture de l'Évangile : Luc 1, 46-55

Mary's Song of Praise

“My soul magnifies the Lord,
47 and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior,
48 for he has regarded the low estate of his handmaiden.
For behold, henceforth all generations will call me blessed;
49 for he who is mighty has done great things for me,
and holy is his name.
50 And his mercy is on those who fear him
from generation to generation.
51 He has shown strength with his arm,
he has scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts,
he has put down the mighty from their thrones,
52 and exalted those of low degree;
he has filled the hungry with good things,
53 and the rich he has sent empty away.
He has helped his servant Israel,
54 in remembrance of his mercy,
as he spoke to our fathers,
55 to Abraham and to his posterity for ever.”
