RECESSIONAL HYMN: We Are Called (SS 948)

Warm thanks to...

...everyone who had an active role in our liturgy this afternoon - including Sean Mulrooney for choosing and leading our music, Michael Vertin, our cross-bearer, Marion Goodbrand who lovingly provided the flowers 'for Gregory,' and Julie Cachia and Valerie Walsh who served at this liturgy and, before that, guided our chapel and social set-up work carried out along with Arnel and Tom - trusty Regis staff members. Greeting you all on your arrival and departure were/will be Kathy Butkovich and Niall Leahy. Thanks to Lee Cormie, MC for our reflection and sharing time during the social. The 'portrait' of Gregory on our Order of Service was offered to us for this unique occasion by photographer, François Gloutnay. Finally, we are very grateful to Fr. Tom Worcester SJ, president of Regis College, for graciously allowing Regis to be the venue of welcome for this gathering to say thank you for all Gregory's giving and receiving over the years that he walked and worked and lived among us. Gregory's Quebec community joins us in love and prayer...

The Lord became my protector.
He brought me into a place of freedom;
He saved me because he delighted in me.
(cf Ps. 18)
